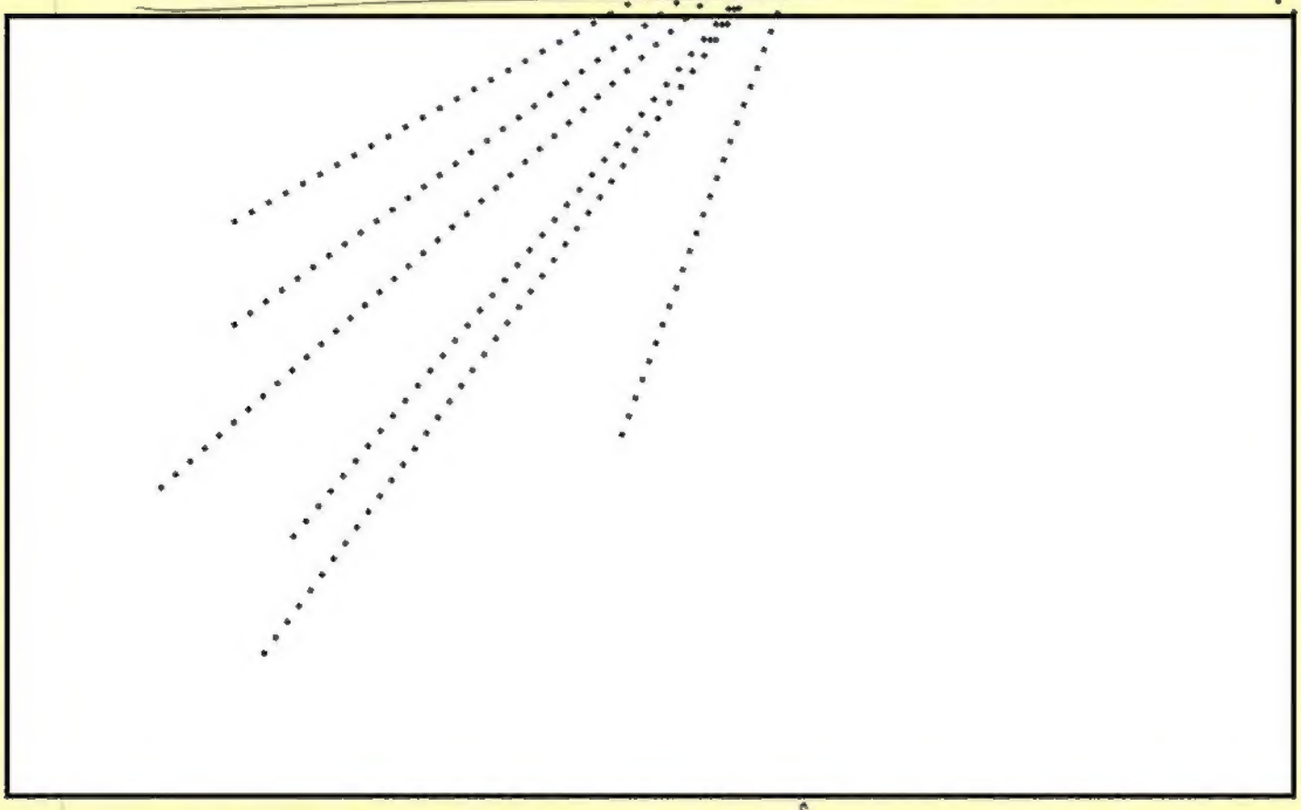
Meredith Gardner 22 Oct 1991



Mr G. again referred to Langelaar's book page 84 on the value to G. of the [redacted] Petsamo codebook. Said G. "I could have done everything w/o it."

G. noted some political changes in the KGB codebook. The entry for Germany under 'G' was changed to 'N' at which point was found an old Russian word for German that literally — read "Those who don't know how to talk."

ROSENBERG Case

G. rec'd a written report from military intelligence that identified "Antenna" as Julius Rosenberg. He cannot recall exact sequence but assumes the report came back in response to MI ring on early Antenna
